Question 1

Which major US paper issued the following correction?

Correction: March 7, 2018

Because of an editing error involving a satirical text-swapping web browser extension, an earlier version of this article misquoted a passage from an article by the Times reporter Jim Tankersley. The sentence referred to America's narrowing trade deficit during “the Great Recession,” not during “the Time of Shedding and Cold Rocks.” (Pro tip: Disable your “Millennials to Snake People” extension when copying and pasting.)

Question 2

Which programming language announced version 1.0 in August 2018?

Question 3

To whom is the following famous quote first attributed:

If I have seen further than others, it is by standing upon the shoulders of giants.
